

Local Merchant

Discount Network

A powerful way to promote your local business.

Join the free BaZing discount network to draw in new customers and keep them coming back.

Free to participate.

Your business is advertised as a part of the network for free in exchange for an ongoing, exclusive discount you provide. Customers using BaZing are members of participating banks or credit unions that allow them access to special discount offers in the community.

A simple way to redeem.

Customers use the free BaZing mobile app to access discounts based on their locations. At the point of sale, they simply show a mobile coupon to receive the discount. Or, customers can print a paper coupon from BaZing.com.

Control your offers anywhere, anytime.

Simply log in to your online BaZing merchant account to add new discounts or edit your existing offers. This gives you the power to make the best offers for your business.

Create your own offers, or you can choose from these sample discounts:
